ROANOKE, THE MAGIC CITY.

Interesting Facts About Roanoke Worth Knowing.

Ronnoke's Population-Its Location and Environments-Its Railroad Facilities. Its Hotels and Factories-Building Operations-Real Estate Transfers. Companies Chartered During 1890, Improvements to be Made in 1891.

Roanoke has a population of 22,000. Its citizens are from nearly every State in the Union. Eight years ago it had 600 people. Its growth at present is on a more solid basis and more rapid than ever before in its history.

Roanoke is located at the junction of the Shenandoah and Roanoke valleys. Its altitude is 907 feet and it is surrounded by a rich agricultural and mineral country.

Roanoke is distant just eight hours ride from Washington and Norfolk, nine from Baltimore, twelve from Philadelphia and fourteen from New York. It is situated at the junction of the Shenandoah Valley and Norfolk and West-ern railroads, both trunk lines, and is-easily reached from any section of the country.

The Roanoke and Southern railroad is now being built to this place from Winston, N. C., and will in a year's time open up the trade of the Carolinas to this section. The Valley Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio runs to Lexington, forty miles distant and a road filling the connecting link will be constructed to Bdanoke in a short time.

the connecting link will be constructed to Roanoke in a short time.

The growth of the city dates from 1882, when the headquarters of the Norfolk and Western were removed here from Lynchburg, the Shenandoah Valley road was completed, and the Roanoke Machine Works, employing at present 1,700 hands, was established. Since then millions of dollars have flowed into the city in the establishment of manufactures and other business enterprises.

Ten building companies, with capital aggregating, $4,330,000.

For the year 1890, the charter books show that forty-nine charters were granted with an aggregate mininium capital of $1,721,250.

The increase in the number of charters in 1890 over 1889 will be seen to be eighty-three, and the increase in the minimum capital $8,525,050.

The companies chartered during the year 1889 are summarized as follows: Fifteen land companies with a capital of $495,506, five investment companies with a capital stock of $70,000; two iron companies with a capital stock of $70,000; two iron companies with a capital stock of $250,-000; three brick companies with a capital stock of $31,000; two street railway companies with a capital of $12,500; three medicinal spring companies with a capital of $32,000; three banks with a capital of $310,000; two machina companies with a capital of $110,000; two machina companies with a capital capital of $110,000; two street railways with a capital capital capital of $110,000; two machina capital capita a capital of $32,000; three banks with a capital of $110,000; two machine companies with a capital of $175,000; one phonograph company with a capital of $300,000; a carriage factory with $25,000 capital; one hydraulic engine company with a capital of $300,000; one electric light company with $25,000 capital; one literary and benevolent association with $5,000 capital; one zine company with a capital of $500,000; a building association with a capital of $500,000; a building association with a capital of $50,000; an opera house company with a capital of $20,000; one lumber company with $20,000; one difference of $20,000; one factor of $20,000; one factor of $20,000; one factor of $20,000; one capital; one baths company with $500,000 capital; one baths company with $500,000 capital; one wheat separator company with a capital of $15,000.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

The real estate transactions last year amounted to $17,067,960 from 5,103 transfers.

For 1889 the real estate transactions amounted to about $7,000,000 from about 3,000 real estate transfers, so that the increase in Roanoke's real estate transfers during 1890 over 1889 was approximately $10,000,000, and the increase in the number of deeds, 2,000.

Over $2,000,000 were spent on buildings in the year 1890 in Roanoke. The number of houses built was about 1,000 or 1,250, and the number of men given employment in the construction of those buildings, from the mason who laid the foundation stones to the painter who put on the last fluishing touches, was 1,200.

In 1889, the previous year, 900 houses were built at an average cost of $1,200 each. The year 1888 witnessed the erection of 500 buildings.

The improvements in 1891 will be even greater than the past. $300,000 is to be appropriated on the 17th of March for street paving and providing an efficient sewer system.

The Duval Engine Works, of Zanesville, Ohio, with a capital of $60,000 and employing 200 men, will be removed here.

A large plant for the manufacture of shelf hardware with a capital of $400,000, employing 350 men, will be moved here from New England. The Norfolk and Western will build a handsome new union depot, the finest in the State.

A glass factory has been secured and contracts for several hundred thousand dollars' worth of new buildings have been made.
